“ My condolences goes out to AJ family he will be missed. He was a good friend and would help anyone and he would keep you laughing all the time he always had a sense of humor. I remember the year we had a bad snow storm and I was living in Hopkins Park with my dad and I had little babies couldnâ€™t get to the end of the road to go to the store cause we was snowed in I called AJ and he came out there and met us at the end of the road and took us to the store so I could get my babies some milk and food. He was really a kind and loving person. He really cared for people. I will truly miss him. RIP My Good Friend
