

Elouise Veal

January 13, 1936 - March 5, 2023

A time to be Born:

Mother Elouise Lovett Veal was born January 13, 1936 to Minnie Lee Moore and Willie Gene Lovett in Macon, Georgia.

A time to Love:

Elouise Veal was united in Holy Matrimony to her soulmate for life, Ennis Veal Sr. in 1954. They wanted a large family, so they started their own army. To this union, ten children were born, five boys and five girls.

A time to Plant:

Mother Veal accepted Christ at Wallace Temple COGIC in Chicago, Illinois under the leadership of Pastor Dago Wallace. Later moving to Pembroke, Illinois, Mother Veal and her family became members of St. John COGIC under the leadership of Pastor William Marsh in Leesville, Illinois. Finally, the Veal family settled at Pembroke COGIC under the leadership of the late Pastor Marvin Goodwin. At this time Mother Veal's husband, Ennis Veal, Sr. became Pastor. Mother Veal was known throughout the community. She had a Candy Store and was known as the Candy Lady. She served God and was a mother figure to all by giving wise counsel.

A time to Rest:

Mother Veal took her heavenly flight on March 5, 2023 at the home of her daughter in Macon, Georgia.

A time to Harvest:

Mother Veal leaves to cherish her memory, four sons, Dennis (Brenda) Veal of Kankakee, IL,

Kenneth (Nora) Veal of Macon, GA, Michael Veal of Charleston, IL and Paul (Geneva) Veal of Dallas, TX; four daughters, Shirley (Chester) Springfield of Kankakee, IL, Jackie (Curtis) Bell and Carmenita Shine all of Macon, GA and Patricia (Bobby) Hagler of Milwaukee, WI; nineteen grandchildren and twelve great-grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.

A time to Mourn:

Mother Veal was preceded in death by her parents, Willie Gene Lovett and Minnie Lee Moore; her husband, Ennis Veal, Sr.; one brother, Willie Gene Lovett, Jr.; one son, Ennis Veal Jr. and one daughter, Pamela Mobley.

“ Mother Veal will definitely be missed. I cant remember a time in my life where she was not around or on the phone with my mom or calling me, to reach my mother. If she could not reach my mom (Mother Brown) her cut up partner, lol she would call all of my moms daughters until she knew my mom was okay. She was such a lively spirit that would speak her mind and set you straight. I appreciate her for being a true faithful, loving friend to my mom until the end. Even when she moved they continued to stay in touch and checked on one another. Thank you for sharing your mom, she was definitely part of our family!!!!
