Harris Fulton Sr. was born April 12, 1929 in Crawford, Mississippi to Ezell and Lucy Carter Fulton.

Mr. Fulton had worked for Bear Brand. It was there that he met the man who would apprentice him as an electrician. As an electrical contractor, Mr. Fulton was responsible for the electrical installation at Morning Star Missionary Baptist Church, Lorenzo R Smith School and other community constructions. One of his philanthropic gifts was the Star atop Morning Star Missionary Baptist Church.

Mr. Fulton loved his family dearly and instilled in them the value of love and hard work. He was an avid hunter of small game and had once been an active member of the Masonic Order.

He leaves to cherish his memory, three daughters and two sons-in-law, Frankie and Troy Williams, Vivian Williams and Vesta and Michael Barrett, all of Kankakee, IL; one son, Harris Fulton Jr. of Kankakee, IL; 11 grandchildren, including a special granddaughter, Jess-Yanni Barrett; 21 great-grandchildren; two sisters, Beulah Mae "Molly" Griffin of Columbus, Mississippi and Lucy Williams of Kankakee, IL; one brother, Robert "Cool Cat" Fulton of Columbus, Mississippi; a very special friend, Rose Perkins of Chebanse, IL, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
