“ Sorry for your loss, I worked with Johnnie at General Mills/Henkel when he was in maintenance. I remember he was one of the rescue men during the explosion when Red Horse and Mason were injured. He had to go in the building, Area 69, with full contained respirator to search for victims. Not an easy task. He was a good mechanic and easy to work with. May God bless his family and friends.

John Baxter - June 17, 2021 at 10:39 AM
