

Joseph Dunlap

June 8, 1968 - February 16, 2021

Joseph T. Dunlap was born June 8, 1968 in Chicago, IL, the second child of William Rogers Jr. and Mary Barnes-Rogers.

Joseph attended and graduated from Kankakee High School and went on to work for M & D Balloons in Manteno, Illinois. He enjoyed creating Disney balloons and then later worked for American Spring Wire. Joseph enjoyed helping people whenever possible and was highly respected by many.

Joseph leaves to cherish his memory, his mother, Mary Barnes-Rogers; sisters, Lonyea Dunlap, Ivette Anderson, and Sonya Rogers; brothers, William Rogers III, Johnnie and Kenya Barnes III and Eric Jenkins; children, Dominique Dunlap Jefferson and Chris of Dallas, TX, Joseph D. and Xavier Mitchell of Houston, TX and Andre Mathews of Minnesota; grandchildren, Ilan and Eli Mitchell, Si'Kyla Jefferson and Andre Lamonte Mateo; paternal aunts and uncles, Leonard and Essie, Darlyn and Calvin, Irwin and Alice, Darryl and Michelle, Aaron, Barbara and McKinley, Judith and Homer and Vivian and Andre; maternal aunts and uncles, Patricia and William, Arnetta and Willie, Larry and Juliet, John and Theresa, Ralph and Ella, Teresa, Amanda and Steve; nieces and nephew, Kiara, Karter and Nayana; special friend, Charloit Winfield, as well as a host of cousins, other relatives and devoted friends.

He was preceded in death by his father, and sisters, Regina and Cynthia.

The measure of a man is his character, for there are truly not enough words to define him.
