

Mary P. Taylor

September 1, 1942 - June 5, 2026

Mary P. Taylor was born on September 1, 1942 in Blanton, Mississippi to James L. Williams and Roxie Hubbard Williams. She departed this life peacefully on June 5, 2026 at Fort Washington Hospital, Fort Washington, Maryland. Her educational foundation was laid in Clarksdale, Mississippi. Her spiritual growth commenced at Power of Christ Missionary Baptist Church, Kankakee, IL.

Mary demonstrated a lasting commitment to making quilts for her family. She loved beautiful flowers, loved watching wrestling with Ross, she spent quality time with family, and she was passionate about showing love to everyone she met.

Mary retired from Mortell Manufacturing Company and also worked many years at Domestic Laundry Services. She enjoyed many other jobs throughout her career.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory, her children, daughters, Linda Price, Mary James, Cassandra Perry (Maurice), Doris Viser (Calvin), Linnett Jordan (Tracey); sons, Terry Taylor and Ondra Taylor; sisters, Adlene Rosenthal (Mack), Lucille Williams, Sarah Dabney, Annie Williams, Bobbie Williams and Diane Thomas; brothers, Harold Williams, Barry Williams and Nelson Williams. Her legacy continues through a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends who will forever hold her memory close to their hearts.

Her life was a reflection of love, strength and devotion to family. Though she has departed this earthly life, her love and legacy will continue to live on in all who knew and loved her.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Ross Taylor Jr.; daughter, Gloria; her parents; sisters, Barbara Williams, Roxie Williams and Emma Williams; brothers, James Williams Jr, Willie Williams, Hurman Williams, Eugene Williams and Larry Williams.
